With an elevation of 545 meters, the Peak is the highest point located in the northwest region of HK. Paying homage to HK, the peak is called Victoria Peak. It is not only an exclusive residential district, but one of the most famous and popular tourist spots in HK where you can overlook the harbor and city view. Walking on the peak you can appreciate the skyscrapers, and beautiful green hills. Looking around in Lugard Road you can take in the entire harbor. The Lion Pavilion, the Peak Galleria and Sky Terrace all have amazing scenery that you should take advantage of seeing.

Stanley Market is one of the must-go places for tourists. Interesting array of little shops sells silk garments, sportswear, art, Chinese costume jewellery and souvenirs, which are great for bargain hunting. Afterwards, explore Aberdeen where fishermen and their families live on hundreds of junks and sampans.

Po Lin Monastery & Tai O Fishing Village (Private car and tour guide are included in the package)

HKD3,120 / USD398 per person (2 - 3 persons)

HKD1,790 / USD228 per person (4 - 5 persons)

The Po Lin Monastery on Lantau Island is a Buddhist temple and complex which despite being a popular attraction to tourists, still maintains its essence and traditions and is well-frequented by locals.

The Tai O Fishing Village in the Western coast of Lantau Island is a quaint and picturesque village, with the traditional stilt houses predominant of the old Southern Chinese fishing villages, one of the few remaining places where you can still see them in Hong Kong. With its pretty setting on the coast framed by the mountains, and all the activity surrounding the harbour, the traditional seafood market, and the daily life in the stilt houses, it is a photographers dream and definitely worth the trip from Hong Kong.
